Indeed, creative or fashionable modes of dress can be a healthy form of self-expression, just as an attractive appearance can contribute to one's personal or professional success. However, to consider a woman's talent for imaginative dress "the 'it' that elevates one woman above the ordinary" is to reinforce the severely limiting and superficial standards by which women in this society have been taught to judge themselves. One need only consider how silly a similar article on men would seem to understand that this double standard exists. Mary Wollstonecraft expressed the idea neatly when she wrote: "Taught from infancy that beauty is woman's scepter, the mind shapes itself to the body, and roving around its gilt	False		1982-05-19	TX 970653

The highway from Italy to Switzerland passes directly through Zone A of the contaminated fenced-off area in Seveso. - C.P., Roslyn, N.Y.; Answer: Thomas Whiteside - author of "The Pendulum and the Toxic Cloud," a review of the problems of the herbicide 2,4,5-T and associated dioxin contaminant - says: "The levels of the extremely toxic TCDD dioxin in the soil of the most heavily contaminated, and fenced-off, section of Seveso are not much lower than they were on the day of the 1976 accident that caused a toxic cloud to descend on the area. Although constant streams of traffic along the Milan-Como autostrada, which runs by this section, undoubtedly have helped sweep dioxin-contaminated particles about, it seems reasonable to say that any health risks to tourist	False		1982-05-19	TX 970653

In addition, the significant shortcomings of smaller, less costly carriers have been highlighted. This all underscores the need for such leviathans as the U.S.S. Nimitz - a need of which the Reagan Administration is keenly aware. Its fiscal 1983 budget request to Congress included funds for construction of two Nimitz-class vessels - the Navy now has three - which cost at least $2.5 billion each.	False	By Kenneth M. Britain and Argentina are lurching toward war. Is there hope left for an interim solution? There is, in the opinion of several senior United Nations officials. The time is ripe, they believe, for creation of a small United Nations peace force. Such a presence in the Falkland Islands could buy time and save lives. Both sides could agree to the stationing of the soldier-administrators there while they resolved their differences diplomatically. Moreover, history provides a striking analogy: the West New Guinea crisis of 1962.	False	By John G. Stoessinger	1982-05-24	TX 913335
